Peter Max Exhibit At The Tennessee State Museum

A retrospective exhibit of works by pop icon artist Peter Max is on display at The Tennessee State Museum, Fifth and Deaderick Streets. The exhibit, titled "Peter Max: From Pop to Patriotism", features works done by the artist during the past 25 years. It includes his posters from the 1960's to the 1990's, his patriotic works, paintings, ceramics and sculpture.

Max's poster art of the 60's was a trend-setting phenomenon. His image of cosmic runners and flower jumpers, space ships and sailing ships ignited the imagination of the entire 60's generation.

Max's works can be viewed from 10:00am –5:00pm, Monday –Saturday, and from 1:00pm–5:00pm on Sunday. The exhibit runs through June 6, the final day of Summer Lights in Music City. Admission is free.

Saint Thomas Tour de Feet

Saint Thomas Tour de Feet, a popular part of Summer Lights in Music City, returns on Saturday morning, June 5. Sponsored by Saint Thomas Hospital, this two mile health and fitness walk teaches participants about historically significant buildings of architectural merit and showcases visual and performing arts unique to Nashville.

Tour de Feet is free to the public. Those completing the walk will receive a complimentary event T-shirt and a coupon good for half-price admission to Summer Lights in Music City. The event begins at 9:00am with registration at Legislative Plaza. For more information, call 386-2056.

Metro Transit Authority Trolley Shuttle Service

Park your car entering at Eighth Avenue North and Charlotte and an MTA Trolley will take you to and from the festival for just 25¢ per person each way. The parking lot is located just north of the State Capitol.

Trolley Shuttle Hours:
Friday 7:00pm - midnight
Saturday 1:00pm - midnight
Sunday 1:00pm - 10:00pm

Trolleys will pick up passengers every 5–10 minutes.

What To Eat: Food & Beverage

Summer Lights in Music City has never before featured such a wide variety of foods and beverages at the festival.

Among food items for sale are: hot dogs, hamburgers, gyros, Philly steak sandwiches, grilled chicken, chicken and sausage kabobs, London broil, armadillo eggs, lamb on a skewer, roasted corn, chicken devine, apple dumplings, barbeque, roasted peanuts, frozen yogurt, chicken fingers, cajun shrimp, buffalo wings, chicken teriyaki, egg rolls, fish sandwiches, cotton candy, candy apples, mozarella cheese sticks, ice cream, cookies, jumbo pretzels, fried pies, strudel and pizza.

Soft drinks, beer, Jack Daniel's Country Cocktails, wine, coffee and lemonade are among the beverages being offered this year.
